

Detroit Waldorf School

Parent and Child Programs

Parent-Child Program: This program provides an opportunity for children ages 12 months to three years and their parents to enjoy a morning of songs, movement, circle time, crafts, stories, snack, and conversation. Children feel free to play with others while having the security and comfort of their parent or caregiver nearby. Adults benefit from being able to discuss parenting issues with others and explore the Waldorf approach to early childhood.

Program Overview: These unique one-day-a-week programs provide an opportunity for children ages 12 months to three years and their parents to enjoy a morning of songs, movement, handwork, snack, and conversation. Children feel free to play with others while having the security and comfort of their parent nearby. Parents are able to discuss parenting issues with others and explore the Waldorf approach to early childhood.

Typical activities include: outdoor play, circle time (songs, finger play, games, nursery rhymes), simple puppet plays, snack preparation, free play / creative play, crafts, stories.

Parent and Child

Programs of the Detroit Waldorf School

Instructor: Dzvinka Hayda

Ms. Hayda comes to the Parent and Child class with a wealth of knowledge and experience. Dzvinka attended Madonna College and University of Detroit Mercy. She graduated with a BS in Child Development and a diploma in Waldorf Education. She has been actively involved in Waldorf education for nearly three decades; as a teacher, lecturer, board member and parent. She is the founder of a Waldorf teacher training seminar and Waldorf school in Western Ukraine. She recently wrote and illustrated a children's book, which was published both in English and Ukrainian.
